

KILLEEN
CASTLE

CRANMORE PAVILION WEDDINGS

As ancient as Ireland

This land has always held a special place in the story of Ireland. The ancestral home of the Plunkett family and the powerful Earls of Fingall; every inch is steeped in history stretching back to the Stone Age.

Just up the road are the Hill of Tara, home of the legendary Irish High Kings and Ireland's most important neolithic sites, centered around Newgrange.

On these grounds, the remains of an imposing abbey still stands tall. But even more impressive, the majestic 12th-century castle of the DeLacy's, one of the finest in Ireland, is currently being restored to its full glory.

Now Killeen Castle can be part of your history too.

There's more. Hundreds of acres of woodlands rich with specimen mature trees, a picture-perfect walled garden, manicured blooming borders, towering hedges, fountains and a parterre.

All enclosing one of Ireland's premier championship golf courses designed by Jack Nicklaus in 2008.

Imagine...

...all the wonderful things you've ever dreamed of for your wedding.

Every gleaming detail is here – and then some. A thousand years of heritage, paired with the latest in modern luxury.

The grandeur of a magnificent castle backdrop. The serenity of a medieval abbey. The intimacy of a vibrant walled garden. The expanse of woodlands stretching to the horizon. The glimmer of crystal and candlelight. Even a touch of enchantment. That faraway feeling, yet so close.

Made even more special with a warm welcome, meticulous attention to detail, and incredible food.

With so much in one spectacular setting, just thirty minutes from Dublin, turning dreams into reality is effortless.

Because here, you can have it all.

Exclusively yours

Because we only host one wedding per day, the special celebration spaces in our Cranmore Pavilion are exclusively yours.

So let the celebrations begin!

Your guests will be warmly welcomed to the acclaimed Sixteen. A convivial, relaxed and stylish nature-inspired gathering spot for canapés and welcome drinks, where the views from the veranda are truly exceptional.

Then on to our banqueting room. Spacious, airy and open; the epitome of contemporary luxe elegance with décor that echoes the parkland setting.

Floor to ceiling windows and a generous terrace, seamlessly merge the outdoors and indoors offering stunning vistas of the golf course and rolling countryside beyond.

But it's the tables that will catch your eye. Each one is beautifully and festively set with glittering crystal, candelabras and gleaming china – perfectly arranged for a feast to remember. The ideal setting for a toast to a happy future.

Deliciously yours

Like you, we believe a great banquet is one of the most memorable elements of any wedding. The secret to happy guests? Exceptional dining ingredients.

We put the emphasis on the fresh, seasonal and flavourful. Wherever possible, sourced from our own kitchen garden, and always the best Irish suppliers.

The food and our service, live up to the occasion.

Our culinary team offers a range of inviting choices to suit varying tastes and styles, complemented by a curated selection of wines. And we can easily accommodate any dietary needs, ensuring every guest is easily catered for.

Testimonials

"Thank you so much for giving us such a wonderful day on 5th August. We couldn't have asked for a better day! Your team was amazing to deal with from start to finish and you did everything possible to make our day so special. We really appreciate all your hard work. Killeen Castle is an outstanding venue with beautiful surrounds and immaculately kept grounds. It is easy to see why we fell in love with it from Day 1! We were so happy that we chose Killeen to hold our wedding! The food was amazing on the day and the staff so helpful and friendly. The icing on the cake was having the accommodation completed for our guests. We got such great compliments on the day from our guests and this is down to the team at Killeen. We would definitely recommend Killeen Castle as a wedding venue. With all our best wishes for the future!"

"To all the team at Killeen Castle, thank you so much for hosting our wedding venue! Thank you to the whole hospitality team for being so professional and nice with us and our family. The grounds are fabulous, and the food and wine were very good. Everyone was very happy, and we enjoyed it."

Sarah Mc Kenna

"The wedding venue of dreams! Killeen Castle is absolutely stunning and the staff are incredible. My now husband and I were living and planning our wedding from NYC... they made planning overseas such a breeze. They were extremely accommodating of our ridiculous requests and cannot believe how smoothly the whole day went. The lodges are lush and the way they are set up was just perfect for our wedding party to get ready in. My makeup artist loved all the natural light we had! We decided to choose the walled gardens for our ceremony and had the reception in the Cranmore Pavilion. The castle itself is still undergoing renovations but we were still able to get some gorgeous photos in front of it. The food was absolutely fabulous and our guests were blown away by the views. We feel so fortunate that we were able to book this place and host such a magical event. We are already planning our next stay."
